Why I chose Wesleyan:
I chose Wesleyan for an array of reasons which include: the ability to experience a rich and full liberal arts education through Wesleyan’s open-curriculum, Wesleyan’s quiet confidence, as well as it’s socially accepting and academically rigorous environment.

Outside the Classroom:

Extracurriculars:
- Wesleyan Refugee Project
- Students for Justice in Palestine
- Middle Eastern Students Union
- Middletown Refugee Resettlement Coalition
- WesBam

Favorite Activity at Wes:
- WesBam classes & community

Favorite moment at Wes:
- Dancing on Foss Hill during orientation

Favorite movie(s):
- The Shawshank Redemption

Favorite songs:
- Anything Beyoncé

Fun Fact:
- Lived in Amman, Jordan for first 13 years of my life

Academic Interests:
I have a deep passion for both Cultural Anthropology and Political Science. I am therefore extremely involved and interested in Wesleyan’s Anthropology and Government departments. Interdisciplinary programs such as the College of Social Studies is of interest to me, as well as the International Relations and Middle Eastern Studies certificates that are offered here at Wesleyan.

Favorite classes at Wes:
Acting I
Introduction to Religious Studies

Current Classes:
- Youth Cultures
- Citizenship & Immigration
- Global Change & Infectious Disease
- Intermediate Arabic

Why I want to be a tour guide:
I want nothing more than to be able to not only share and describe the endless amounts of opportunities that this school has to offer, but also express my true belief in how there truly is something for everyone here at Wesleyan.
