

Information for Visiting International Scholars

International visitors regularly come to campus for a few days or for a full year. Below are helpful resources to help you plan your arrival, organize accommodation and familiarize guests with Middletown as well as Wesleyan. The University has a helpful Visitor's Guide to get you started. And there are more resources available on the Fries Center of Global Studies website as well.

It can be overwhelming to arrive to a new country and university campus. Below, the Fries Center for Global Studies (FCGS) has provided information to assist you with information to support international visiting scholars. We hope that you find this page useful as you acclimate to Wesleyan University and Middletown, CT.
