Academic History:

Please attach a copy of your unofficial transcript from your current institution; you may scan a paper copy, or if your transcript is online, you may copy and insert it here.

If you have received AP credit in both Macro and Microeconomics or, if you have taken the IB exam in Economics, please provide both your test results here and provide a copy of the results as a separate attachment.

Extra-Curricular Activities:

In the fill boxes below, list the main extra-curricular activities you were engaged in at your last university AND/OR you expect to be involved in at Wesleyan:

List one or two faculty members who know you best:

Name of Faculty Member, University, Email Address

Writing Sample:

In addition to this application, please include as a separate pdf attachment, a scanned copy of a graded paper you have written for a class, at your last university, which represents your best work. The graded paper should include comments from your professor.

Essay:

In the fill box on the next page, please copy and paste a single typed essay no more than 300 words long that responds to the following points:

- What aspect of the College of Social Studies will be of the greatest value to you?
- What do you see as being sacrificed, the “opportunity cost” of choosing the CSS major over an alternative choice?
- Try to distinguish your interests in the CSS from that of other students.
- What can you bring to the CSS? In what ways can you contribute the most to the CSS Community? How can you convince us that you would remain committed to the CSS, especially with the demanding Sophomore year?

Paste your essay on the following page.

Paste your 300 word essay here.

Thank you for your interest in the College of Social Studies.
