Requirements for the Master of Arts degree

- A minimum of six to eight credits (depending on the department) in addition to the 32 necessary for the Wesleyan BA are required for the MA degree. Of these six to eight credits, two to four (at the department's discretion) must be in advanced coursework. The remaining credits may be earned through research and seminar courses. Note that MA credit will only be awarded for academic exercise in which grades of B minus or higher are earned.
- Research culminating in an MA thesis.

I. Courses/credits earned while in the BA portion of the program to be used toward the MA degree:

NOTE: Students who earn more than 32 credits at the time the BA degree is completed may apply excess credits toward the MA degree provided that the credits are for courses in the major area or related area of study and the courses have not been used to fulfill the undergraduate major requirement.
