

Rachele Merliss '19 is the SART intern for the 2017-2018 school year.

As a captain of the clinic escort team and co-leader of Wesleyan's Planned Parenthood Generation Action group, Rachele is a passionate advocate for ending sexual violence and protecting survivors' rights.

She is majoring in American Studies with a Health and Gender concentration. In addition to her health advocacy work, Rachele makes theatre with Second Stage and is a member of The Hysterics comedy collective.

She spent last summer in D.C. as a political research intern at the National Organization for Women.

