THEA 331 Technical Practice (.5 CR)

THEA 335 Technical Practice (1.0CR)

Productions in the Theater Department are the laboratory in which all aspects of theater study and creation come together in a collaborative effort for presentation to an audience. The Department recognizes that theater-making is both process and product in which learning, and achievement are dual goals.

Technical Practice for credit in any Theater Department production (thesis and faculty/guest director project) is evaluated by the faculty as follows:

1. Attendance: On time arrival and attendance at all required meetings, rehearsals, performances etc. as scheduled by the production team.
2. Attitude: Each task approached with a positive attitude and completed with teamwork and a collaborative spirit.
3. Theater Skills Development: Demonstrated increase in understanding of your crew assignment.

Credit	Performs duties as assigned and meets attendance requirements
No Credit	Fails to perform duties and/or doesn't meet attendance requirements

PLEASE NOTE:

SINCE THEATER -MAKING, REHEARSAL AND PERFORMANCE REQUIRE COLLABORATION IN THE SAME TIME AND SPACE, PUNCTUALITY AND ATTENDANCE ARE FUNDAMENTAL NECESSITIES. AN UNEXCUSED ABSENCE FROM ANY OF THE FORMAL CALLS WILL AUTOMATICALLY RESULT IN NO CREDIT FOR THE COURSE.
